RULES OF MOHILL AGRICULTURAL SHOW

- (1) The arrangements of the Show will be conducted by a Committee of Management, and the persons entering the Show Grounds are subject to the directions of the Stewards and Secretaries.
- (2) Intending competitors must lodge with the Secretaries a complete list of entries numbered to the Prize List (on forms to be supplied by the Sec.) not later than August 10th otherwise they will not be considered,
- (3) All exhibits (whether for competition or exhibition) in order that they may be properly arranged, should be at the Show Grounds by 10a.m. on the morning of the Show and cannot be admitted after 11a.m.
- (4) All exhibits must be shown under owner's name and must be property of exhibitor, Novelty classes excepted. Only one caretaker or servant for each lot of Horses, Cattle, Sheep and Goats will be admitted free and must remain in charge of his lot during the time the Show is open. Bulls must be secured by a ring or screw in the nose with a chain and leading stick attached and to be in charge of a caretaker; otherwise they cannot be admitted. All cattle to have halters on their heads and to be kept under proper control. All competing animals to be distinguished by numbers only.
- (5) No person will be permitted to interfere with, or crowd around the Judges when adjudicating. Exhibitors so doing will forfeit their claim to prizes.
- (6) Exhibitors may enter the same exhibit in the Cattle and Horse Section in as many classes as they are eligible for, provided that they pay the necessary entry fee in each class.
- (7) The Judges shall have the power to award First and Second prize according to the merits of the exhibits or to withhold any or all prizes in any class, for want of merit.
- (8) The decision of the Judges shall be final as to merit and points of qualifications. Objections or appeals will be considered and should be lodged in writing with the Hon. Secretaries together with a fee of €10 on day of Show. Such objections will be considered by the Executive Committee. The fee will be forfeited if the objection is deemed frivolous.
- (9) An exhibitor will not be awarded more than two first prizes with the same animal unless in Championships.
- (10) No diseased animals can be admitted and should any manifest symptoms of disease during the exhibit, they must be immediately removed from the premises, on an order being given to that effect by Secretaries.
- (11) The ages of horses, bulls, cows, heifers and calves to date from the 1st January in the years of their birth, except in specified classes.
- (12) As one of the objects of the Committee is to encourage the keeping of superior animals of the various descriptions for breeding purposes, the Judges will be instructed to particularly discourage over-fed breeding animals and those showing symptoms of constitutional unsoundness.
- (13) Entries must be made on the prescribed Entry Form to be had from the Secretaries. In no case will the entry be accepted without the proper fee.

- (14) All exhibits in the Cattle, Horse and Dog Classes must have been the bona-fide property of exhibitors since 1st July 2023, Novelty classes excepted. All entries in farm and garden produce must have been produced on farms the property of the exhibitors.
- (15) While every reasonable care will be exercised the Committee will not be responsible for any accident, loss or damage to any exhibit, exhibitor or spectator from any cause whatever occurring in the Show Grounds or in transit thereto and there from. Should any matter arise not provided for or in preview of those rules and regulations, such matters should be referred to the Committee, whose decisions should be final and binding - no appeal to law in any case being permitted.
- (16) Special Notice: Any person found exhibiting an animal or other exhibit not his bona fide property shall be guilty of a criminal offence and will be prosecuted.
- (17) The Committee reserve the right to require proof of compliance with the Rules before paying the various prizes.
- (18) Neither the Committee nor any of its Officers or Servants shall be in any way responsible for or accountable for anything that may happen (from any cause or circumstances whatever) to exhibitors into the Show Grounds, or for anything else in connection with or arising out of, or attributable to the Committee's Show. Each exhibitor shall be solely responsible for any consequential or other loss, injury or damage done to or occasioned by, or arising from animal or articles exhibited by him/her and for its description as given in the Catalogue, and shall indemnify the Committee against all legal or other proceedings in regard thereto. The Committee will endeavor to have the Catalogue as complete as possible and in accordance with the particulars given on the entry forms. It cannot, however, hold itself responsible for any additions, omissions or mistakes which may occur for any reason whatsoever in the Catalogue. Exhibitors will be held responsible for the behaviour of their servants and for the consequences of any misconduct of such servants.
- (19) 5% Championship Levy will be deducted from Horses, Cattle and Sheep Prizemoney for the I.S.A. Championship Fund.
- (20) Where Special Prizes are awarded on points the following rule will be adhered to; 3 points for any 1st Prize, excluding qualifier; 2 points for any 2nd Prize and 1 point for any 3rd Prize awarded by the Judge. In the event of a tie in points, a draw will take place at a Committee meeting in the presence of the exhibitors involved.

The Irish Shows Association would advise all Animal Owners who have their Animals insured to extend their Insurance Cover to cover them for exhibiting at Shows. This advice is given to protect exhibitors / owners in the event of their animal lashing out, injuring someone or damaging property. If it is established that your animal was out of your control you may be held responsible or partly responsible for any injury or damage caused and may be liable for part or all of any future claim.

General Rules for IRISH SHOWS ASSOCIATION CHAMPIONSHIPS 2023

Eligibility of Shows:

1. Shows wishing to participate in the 2023 Championships and be eligible to hold qualifiers must have collected the Championship Fund Levy (currently 5%) from Horse, Pony, Cattle and Sheep class Prizemoney for the year 2022 and forwarded the amount so collected, in full, to the Irish Shows Association Head Office within the stipulated period of not more than 30 days from the date of their Show. Alternative methods of meeting this obligation are not acceptable.
Any show or competitor in breach of these Rules set out below will be disqualified from participating or competing in these Championships.
2. These General Rules and those relating to individual championships (where applicable) should be published in the show schedule and catalogue of the participating shows and must be strictly observed.
3. Qualifying Rounds (Qualifiers)
Qualifying rounds will take place at eligible shows selected by the Irish Shows Association.

Responsibility of Exhibitors:

1. Exhibitors accept that the Judges decision is final in cases. Any abuse of Judges will not be tolerated. Where a dispute or case for complaint arises the matter should only be dealt with rule 6. below.
 2. Winners of qualifiers are themselves responsible for entering their animals or exhibits for the final within one hour of qualifying,
 3. Winners of qualifiers will compete in the final.
 4. The Irish Shows Association in conjunction with the Sponsor reserve the right to alter or amend the rules of any competition as may be necessary or appropriate.
 5. Shows and competitors must contact the Irish Shows National Office for details of any championships and not the Sponsor involved.
 6. Objections must be lodged in writing with the I.S.A. representative at the Show or the Show Secretary within half an hour following the completion of judging together with a fee of €50, or other stated fee which is refundable in the event of the objection being upheld.
- G Any Exhibitor who makes a false declaration or misrepresents a fact regarding themselves or their exhibit is liable to disqualification and/or forfeiture of any Prizes awarded.

The Irish Shows Association would advise all Animal Owners who have their Animals insured to extend their Insurance Cover to cover them for exhibiting at Shows. This advice is given to protect exhibitors / owners in the event of their animal lashing out, injuring someone or damaging property. If it is established that your animal was out of your control you may be held responsible or partly responsible for any injury or damage caused and may be liable for part or all of any future claim.

CATTLE

MOHILL AGRICULTURAL SHOW WOULD APPRECIATE THE CO-OPERATION OF ALL CATTLE EXHIBITORS IN COMPLYING WITH THE PRESENT GUIDELINES FOR MOVEMENT OF ANIMALS TO AND FROM SHOWS AS ISSUED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE , FOOD & MARINE

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE & FOOD SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS

The following Rules apply: The movement of Cattle to and from a Show within the State must be recorded on the AIM System. A Specific Certificate of Compliance for the movement of bovine from a single holding to a Show must now be requested prior to the movement of animals concerned.

These Certificates can be created by (a) applying online using their agrifood account or (b) where the Keeper is not online the Certificate can be generated by the local Regional Veterinary Office following receipt of a NBAS31K with issue of the Certificate being subject to normal criteria applicable. This Form is available on the Departments Website. When applying for the Certificate the destination Herd/Show number is not required. The Certificate generated will include an “S” symbol. The Certificate of Compliance for a Show will continue to be valid for 30 days. Calves under 10 days cannot be moved to a Show. On Show Day the Certificate must be produced to the Show Secretary fully completed with Cards.

EXHIBITORS MUST HAVE THEIR OWN CERTIFICATES OF COMPLIANCE WITH THEM ON SHOW DAY- NO CERT, NO SHOW

Testing Requirements for Movement of Animals: T.B. All animals must come from Herds, which are officially TB free (OTF) (i.e. not restricted) and the herd and relevant animals must have had a clear test within the previous twelve months – this test must be recorded on the Department’s Animal Health Computer System (AHCS).

Identification All Cattle must bear two plastic tags with the same number (one in each ear) as issued under the Department’s identification system. They must be accompanied by passports.

Important Notice to Animal Owners involved in Showing Animals

The Irish Shows Association would advise all Animal Owners who have their Animals insured to extend their Insurance Cover to cover them for exhibiting at Shows. This advice is given to protect exhibitors / owners in the event of their animal lashing out, injuring someone or damaging property.
